Ontario Liberals Tumble Again

NDP to serve as opposition in massive Conservative Government

Toronto, June 16th – In a random sampling of public opinion taken by The Forum Poll™ among 1003 Ontario voters, amongst those decided and leaning, more than 4-in-10 (44%) say they would support the Progressive Conservatives. Fewer than a quarter (23%) say they would support the Liberals, with the same proportion (24%) saying they would support the NDP. (7%) say they support the Green Party, and (2%) say they would support another party.

Respondents most likely to support the Progressive Conservatives include those aged 55-64 (50%), males (52%), earning $60,000-$80,000 (56%) or $80,000-$100,000 (55%), living in Southwestern Ontario (52%), and the least educated (50%) or with some college or university (49%).

Respondents most likely to support the Liberals include those aged 34 or younger (24%), 35-44 (25%), 65+ (25%), earning $20,000-$40,000 (30%), living in Toronto (31%), and with a post-graduate degree (34%).

Respondents most likely to support the NDP include those aged 34 or younger (27%), 35-44 (28%), or 45-54 (27%), earning $20,000-$40,000 (35%), living in Northeastern Ontario (33%), and with a college/university (27%) or post-graduate (25%) degree.

Conservatives expand majority, Liberals crash

If an election were held today, the Progressive Conservatives would likely secure 87 seats, more than needed for a majority in the 122-seat legislature.

The NDP would form the official opposition with 26 seats. The Liberals would secure 9 seats, one seat more than the minimum needed to form an official party in the Ontario Legislature. The Liberals' drop in support in Toronto and the GTA is largely the contributing factor to their overall projected loss of seats.

Horwath popular; Wynne and Brown, not so much

Kathleen Wynne's approval is (15%), and her disapproval (74%) is almost three-quarters. (11%) do not know whether to approve or disapprove of the Premier's performance. Her net favourable score (approve minus disapprove is -59.)

Patrick Brown's approval is more than a quarter (29%), and his disapproval is just under a third (30%). The majority, (41%), don't know enough about Patrick Brown to offer an opinion. His net favourable score is -1.

Andrew Horwath is still the most popular of the three leaders with an approval of almost four in ten (38%), with disapproval of just over a quarter (27%).

"The post budget bump that the Liberals saw in May is now completely gone and they see themselves likely serving as third party in the Ontario Legislature, well behind even the second place NDP," said Dr. Lorne Bozinoff, President of Forum Research.

Methodology

The Forum Poll™ was conducted by Forum Research with the results based on an interactive voice response telephone survey of 1003 randomly selected Ontario Voters. The poll was conducted June 12-14, 2017.

Results based on the total sample are considered accurate +/- 3%, 19 times out of 20. Subsample results will be less accurate. Margins of error for subsample (such as age, gender) results are available at www.forumresearch.com/samplestim.asp

Where appropriate, the data has been statistically weighted by age, region, and other variables to ensure that the sample reflects the actual population according to the latest Census data.

This research is not necessarily predictive of future outcomes, but rather, captures opinion at one point in time. Forum Research conducted this poll as a public service and to demonstrate our survey research capabilities. Forum houses its poll results in the Data Library of the Department of Political Science at the University of Toronto.

With offices across Canada and around the world, 100% Canadian-owned Forum Research is one of the country's leading survey research firms. This Forum Poll™ and other polls may be found at Forum's poll archive at www.forumresearch.com/polls.asp
