UNITED CONSERVATIVE MAJORITY

Toronto, April $6^{\text {th }}-$ In a random sampling of public opinion taken by The Forum Poll ${ }^{\text {TM }}$ among 1132 Alberta voters, amongst those decided and leaning more than half of Albertans (55\%) say that they would support the United Conservative Party.

A third (32\%) say they would support the NDP and about 1 in 10 (7\%) would support the Alberta Party.

Few say they would support either the Green Party (2\%), another party (2\%), or the Liberals (1\%).

United Conservative majority, NDP as opposition

If the election were held today, we project these results would see a United Conservative Party majority government with 67 seats. The NDP would serve as opposition with 18 seats, and the Liberals and Alberta Party would each secure behind at 1 seat.

Most Albertans watched or heard about debate

A majority of Albertans (83\%) either watched or heard about the Provincial leader's debate.

4 in 10 Albertans said they watched the Provincial leader's debate (44\%), while a similar proportion said they heard about the debate (39\%). A sixth (17\%) did not watch or hear anything about the debate.

4 in 10 believe Jason Kenney won debate

Regardless of which leaders Albertans would vote for, 4 in 10 (41\%) believe Jason Kenney won the debate. A quarter (23\%) believe Rachel Notley won the debate, while a sixth (16\%) said there was no winner.
(6\%) believe David Khan or Stephen Mandel won the debate and 1 in 10 (9\%) stated they 'don't know'.

FORUM RESEARCH

Three-quarters do not believe the debate impacted their vote
Three-quarters (72\%) said that the Alberta provincial leader's debate did not have any effect on their vote. A quarter ( $28 \%$ ) said that the debate did impact their vote.

Of those who said the debate had an impact on their vote, 4 in 10 (40\%) are more likely to vote for UCP. A third (36\%) are more likely to vote NDP and 1 in 10 (11\%) are more likely to vote for the Alberta Party.
"The United Progressive Party holds a big lead over the NDP going into the final week, with declared support from more than half of Albertans." said Dr. Lorne Bozinoff, President of Forum Research. "A week may be an eternity in politics, but, at this point, it's going to take a major shift to jostle Jason Kenney out of the premier's chair."

FORUM REGEARGH INO.

Methodology

The Forum Poll ${ }^{\text {TM }}$ was conducted by Forum Research with the results based on an interactive voice response telephone survey of 1132 randomly selected Albertans. 157,099 Albertans were contacted to participate. This poll was not sponsored by a third party and was conducted on April $4^{\text {th }}$ and April 5 ${ }^{\text {th }}, 2019$.

Results based on the total sample are considered accurate +/-3\%, 19 times out of 20. Subsample results will be less accurate. Margins of error for subsample (such as age, gender) results are available at www.forumresearch.com/samplestim.asp

Where appropriate, the data has been statistically weighted by age, region, and other variables to ensure that the sample reflects the actual population according to the latest Census data.

This research is not necessarily predictive of future outcomes, but rather, captures opinion at one point in time. Actual results depend on a Candidate's ability to get their voters out. Forum Research conducted this poll as a public service and to demonstrate our survey research capabilities. Forum houses its poll results in the Data Library of the Department of Political Science at the University of Toronto.

With offices across Canada and around the world, 100\% Canadian-owned Forum Research is one of the country's leading survey research firms. This Forum Poll ${ }^{\text {rm }}$ and others, can be found at forumpoll.com.
