Conservatives leading over Liberals

If election held today, Conservatives would secure majority

Toronto, December 3rd – In a random sampling of public opinion taken by The Forum Poll™ among 1541 Canadian voters, with those decided and leaning, 4 in 10 (43%) say they would support the Conservatives, with a third (34%) saying they would support the Liberals.

1 in 10 (11%) say they would support the NDP, with a few (6%) supporting the Green Party. Few would support the BQ (4%) or another party (1%).

Respondents most likely to support the Conservatives include those who live in the Prairies (Alberta 65%, Manitoba/Saskatchewan 57%), males (51%), between the ages of 45-54 (51%), earning between $60k-$80k (49%), and/or have an education level of secondary school or less (47%).

Respondents most likely to say they support the Liberals include those who live in the Atlantic region (50%), between the ages of 35-44 (35%), are 65 and over (35%), earning between 100k-250k (40%) and/or earned a post-graduate degree (40%).

Based on these results, the Conservatives are tracking toward a majority government of 180 seats. The Liberals would serve as official opposition with 140. The NDP would secure 10, the BQ 6, and the Greens 2.

Is Canada better or worse than in 2014?

When asked if Canada is doing better or worse than it was 4 years ago, just under half of respondents (TOP2: 47%) stated it was better with a third (32%) stating it was a bit better and about 1 in 7 (15%) stating it was much better. While a little over half of respondents (BTM2: 53%) stated it was worse, about a quarter (23%) stated it was a bit worse and under a third (30%) stating it was much worse.

Unsurprisingly, the majority of Conservative voters (BTM2: 88%) believe that Canada is worse than it was 4 years ago while the majority of Liberal voters (TOP2: 86%) believe that Canada is better than it was 4 years ago.

“The Conservatives have a strong and steady lead over the Liberals as we go into the New Year,” said Dr. Lorne Bozinoff, President of Forum Research. “With more than half of NDP, BQ and Green voters believing that Canada is better off now than it was 4 years ago, it will be imperative for Trudeau’s Liberals to capture uncommitted voters from those parties in order to have a chance at winning the election over Scheer’s Conservatives”.

Methodology

The Forum Poll™ was conducted by Forum Research with the results based on an interactive voice response telephone survey of 1541 randomly selected Canadians across the country. The poll was conducted on from November 28 to November 29, 2018.

Results based on the total sample are considered accurate +/- 3%, 19 times out of 20. Subsample results will be less accurate. Margins of error for subsample (such as age, gender) results are available at www.forumresearch.com/samplestim.asp

Where appropriate, the data has been statistically weighted by age, region, and other variables to ensure that the sample reflects the actual population according to the latest Census data.

This research is not necessarily predictive of future outcomes, but rather, captures opinion at one point in time. Actual results depend on a Candidate's ability to get their voters out. Forum Research conducted this poll as a public service and to demonstrate our survey research capabilities. Forum houses its poll results in the Data Library of the Department of Political Science at the University of Toronto.

With offices across Canada and around the world, 100% Canadian-owned Forum Research is one of the country's leading survey research firms. This Forum Poll™ and other polls may be found at Forum's poll archive at forumpoll.com.
