HIGHLIGHTS:

- In a random sampling of public opinion taken by the Forum Poll™ among 1172 Ontario voters, 4-in-10 will vote PC if the election were held today (40%)
- PCs would take 57, three more than required for a majority
- Premier Kathleen Wynne has the approval of just one fifth of the electorate (21%)
- Patrick Brown is seen as the best choice for Premier by a quarter (24%), about 10 points ahead of either Kathleen Wynne (16%) or Andrea Horwath (15%)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Progressive Conservatives with 10 Point Lead

Slim PC majority seen

In a random sampling of public opinion taken by the Forum Poll™ among 1172 Ontario voters, 4-in-10 will vote PC if the election were held today (40%), while 3-in-10 support the Liberals (30%). Just more than a fifth support the NDP (21%). This is in contrast to one month ago, when the PC lead was just 5 points (April 28, PC - 39%, Liberal - 34%, NDP - 21%). Note that more than a tenth of those who voted Liberal in the last election will vote PC now (13%) and an identical proportion of past New Democrats will support Liberal candidates (13%). One sixth of past Liberals will now support the NDP (15%).

Slim PC majority seen

If the results above are projected up to the 107 seat Legislature, the PCs would take 57, three more than required for a majority, while the Liberals would capture 26 and the NDP 24 seats.

Leaders' favourables stable

Premier Kathleen Wynne has the approval of just one fifth of the electorate (21%) and her net favourable score (approve minus disapprove) is a truly negative -47. Patrick Brown has the approval of a quarter (25%), but his net score is a neutral +1, because of the high percentage of voters who don't know enough about him (52%) to rate him. Andrea Horwath has the highest approval of the three leaders, at about one third (34%), and her net favourable score is just +3. These findings are similar to those noted last month. Of note, 3-in-10 Liberal voters do not approve of Kathleen Wynne (29%).

Patrick Brown preferred for Premier

Patrick Brown is seen as the best choice for Premier by a quarter (24%), about 10 points ahead of either Kathleen Wynne (16%) or Andrea Horwath (15%). The largest single group of voters says “none of these” is the best choice, however (28%).

“Both Kathleen Wynne and Patrick Brown are underperforming their respective parties in terms of approval, Wynne because she is genuinely disliked, even by some Liberals, and Brown because he’s not well-enough known yet to perform at the level his party currently aspires to. Horwath, on the other hand, continues to outperform her party. While voters genuinely admire her, they just aren’t ready to vote NDP provincially in Ontario” said Forum Research President, Dr. Lorne Bozinoff.

Methodology

The Forum Poll™ was conducted by Forum Research with the results based on an interactive voice response telephone survey of 1172 randomly selected Canadian adults. The poll was conducted on May 31st, 2016.

Results based on the total sample are considered accurate +/- 3%, 19 times out of 20. Subsample results will be less accurate. Margins of error for subsample (such as age, gender) results are available at www.forumresearch.com/samplestim.asp

Where appropriate, the data has been statistically weighted by age, region, and other variables to ensure that the sample reflects the actual population according to the latest Census data.

This research is not necessarily predictive of future outcomes, but rather, captures opinion at one point in time. Forum Research conducted this poll as a public service and to demonstrate our survey research capabilities. Forum houses its poll results in the Data Library of the Department of Political Science at the University of Toronto.

With offices across Canada and around the world, 100% Canadian-owned Forum Research is one of the country's leading survey research firms. This Forum Poll™ and other polls may be found at Forum's poll archive at www.forumresearch.com/polls.asp
