Conservative Ticks Down Slightly But...

...they'd still win if an election were held today

Toronto, April 29th – In a random sampling of public opinion taken by The Forum Poll™ among 1595 Canadian voters, with those decided and leaning, 4 in 10 (37%) say they would support the Conservatives, with a third (30%) saying they would support the Liberals and one-sixth (14%) supporting the NDP.

1 in 10 (9%) support the Green Party and few support the BQ (6%), the People's Party of Canada (2%), or another party (2%).

Those aged 45-54 (42%), males (46%), earning between $80,000 to $100,000 (48%), and living in Alberta (66%) are most likely to support the Conservatives.

Respondents most likely to say they support the Liberals include those aged 65 and over (36%), females (33%), with post-graduate degrees (37%), and those living in Atlantic Canada (34%), Quebec (34%), and Ontario (34%).

If an election were held today, these results suggest the Conservatives would win a majority government of 173 seats. The Liberals would serve as the official opposition with 109 seats. The NDP would secure 27 seats, BQ would secure 27, and the Green Party would secure 2 seats.

1 in 3 say Scheer would make the best Prime Minister

A third (31%) say Andrew Scheer would make the best Prime Minister regardless of which party they plan to vote for. 3-in-10 (27%) say Justin Trudeau, 1 in 10 (13%) say Elizabeth May or (8%) say Jagmeet Singh would make the best Prime Minister.

One-fifth (20%) of respondents say they don't know.

The Forum Poll™ was conducted by Forum Research with the results based on an interactive voice response telephone survey of 1595 randomly selected Canadians across the country. The poll was conducted from April 23-24, 2019.

Results based on the total sample are considered accurate +/- 3%, 19 times out of 20, measured as the average deviation across all response categories. Subsample results will be less accurate. Margins of error for subsample (such as age, gender) results are available at www.forumresearch.com/samplestim.asp

Where appropriate, the data has been statistically weighted by age, region, and other variables to ensure that the sample reflects the actual population according to the latest Census data.

This research is not necessarily predictive of future outcomes, but rather, captures opinion at one point in time. Actual results depend on a Candidate's ability to get their voters out. Forum Research conducted this poll as a public service and to demonstrate our survey research capabilities. Forum houses its poll results in the Data Library of the Department of Political Science at the University of Toronto.

With offices across Canada and around the world, 100% Canadian-owned Forum Research is one of the country's leading survey research firms. This Forum Poll™ and other polls may be found at Forum's poll archive at forumpoll.com.

Top2/Btm2 (or 3 or 4 where applicable) refers to the combined results of the most answered positive and negative responses:
